Tue, 16th Jun 2015, CROSSHALL MANOR, CAMBS

Lot 512

Estimate: £4000 - £6000 + Fees

REPOUSSÉ ENAMEL WALL PANEL QING DYNASTY, 18TH CENTURY

the rectangular panel decorated in relief with a central pavilion floating on clouds, surrounded by flying cranes, above swirling waves, on a painted light blue background, enclosed within a keyfret border, the back decorated with gilt flowers and plants on a painted black ground, carved wood frame

91cm high, 66.5cm wide

Note:

The quality and craftsmanship of this panel indicate that it may have been an imperial commission. Large scenes such as these are highly unusual.

A similar example sold at China Guardian on 16th May 2010.
