

Asian Works of Art (552)

Wed, 13th Mar 2019, Edinburgh

Lot 33

Estimate: £400 - £600 + Fees

TWO EMBROIDERED RUST-GROUND SILK PANELS QING DYNASTY, 19TH CENTURY

worked in couched-gilt and brightly coloured silk threads, the first depicting an elephant carrying precious objects, lingzhi and lotus issuing from a jardinière on its back, the second depicting a Buddhist lion playing with a brocade ball above a lishui border, both framed and glazed (2)

largest 50x49cm (sight)

Provenance:

Private English collection.