

Paul Reeves: An Eye for Design feat.
Textiles as Art II (548)

14th February 2019, Edinburgh

Lot 19

AUGUSTUS WELBY NORTHMORE PUGIN (1812-1852)
PAIR OF GOTHIC REVIVAL PAINTED IRON AND BRASS MOUNTED CHANDELIERS, CIRCA 1850

each with quatrefoil pierced and scalloped hoops, with original polychrome painted decoration, supporting six candle sconces with scalloped drip trays suspended by three chains and with original filigree ceiling roses (2)

58cm diameter, 72cm high

Note: For comparable light fittings designed by Pugin see Our Lady and St Wilfrid's Church, Warwick Bridge, completed in 1841.