

Paintings & Works on Paper (566)

17th July 2019, Edinburgh

Lot 2

Estimate: £400 - £600 +Fees

LATE 18TH/EARLY 19TH CENTURY SCOTTISH SCHOOL ALEX ROSE OF NAIRN, WITH HIS FLUTE AND BOOK OF MUSIC

Oil on canvas, oval

28cm x 21cm (11in x 8.25in)

Note: Alexander Rose (1779-1813) was known as 'a handsome and dashing officer,' with a penchant for extravagant spending. He was the fourth son of William Rose of Montcoffer House, Banff (1740-1807) and Mary Robinson (1757-1838), and was killed during the storming of San Sebastian. The portrait had remained within the family.

