Herrera y Tordesillas, Antonio de - Peru Descripcion de las Yndias de Mediodia

[Madrid, 1601], 28 x 39cm, hand-coloured in outline, with manuscript notes in an early hand to left margin, dampstaining

Note: The manuscript note, written in Spanish, has an interesting translation which appears to relate to 'mythical' people living in a particular area of the country: "These are some men who have "tails" between the waist like a ram's, that when they settle they make a hole in the ground to put the "tail" that otherwise could not settle."
