

Rare Books, Manuscripts, Maps & Photographs ft. the Library of the Late William St Clair (683)

Wed, 2nd Feb 2022, Live Online | Edinburgh

Viewing Times:

Lot 197

Estimate: £300 - £400 + Fees

Paine, Thomas 11 volumes, comprising Common Sense, addressed to the Inhabitants of America. London: R. Carlile, 1819. 8vo, contemporary half calf; Common Sense. London: Benbow, 1821, 12mo, 3 parts in one volume, contemporary calf gilt; The Theological Works of Thomas Paine. London: R. Carlile, 1818, ["one of the great books in the history of the freedom of ideas" (W. St. Clair)], contemporary half calf, rubbed, upper cover detached; The Theological Works of Thomas Paine. London: R. Carlile, 1827. 8vo, contemporary half calf, rubbed; Rights of Man. London: J. Brooks, 1830, 12mo, contemporary half calf, rubbed; Rights of Man, part the Second. London: R. Carlile, 1826, contemporary half calf, worn; The Working Man's Political Companion. London: J. Watson, 1832, 8vo, original cloth; Carlile, Richard The Life of Thomas Paine. London: R. Carlile, [n.d.], 8vo, quarter calf, rebacked; "W.J." Thoughts on the Inconsistency of Religious Persecutions. London: R. Carlisle, 1819. (at end "end of volume 1"), half calf, rebacked; Oldys, Francis. The Life of Thomas Paine... tenth edition. 1793. 8vo, engraved title, quarter cloth; all rather spotted; and an 1850 edition of Life of Paine (11)