LONGQUAN CELADON YUHUCHUN VASE EARLY MING DYNASTY

明早期 龍泉窯青釉劃花花卉紋玉壺春瓶

the elegantly proportioned pear-shaped body rising from a slightly splayed foot, sweeping up to a tall waisted neck and an everted lipped rim, the body boldly carved with large flowers borne on an undulating stem also issuing furled leaves, above a broad lotus lappet band enclosing ruyi heads, with a key-fret border at the foot, the shoulder encircled by a pendent ruyi-head border, with classic scroll, key-fret and upright lappet bands at the neck, applied overall with an even olive-green glaze save for the foot ring
