

Drambuie Part 2 (136A)

Fri, 27th Jan 2006, Edinburgh

Lot 80

Estimate: £4000 - £6000 + Fees

The Leith Goblet, circa 1765,

A large bucket bowl goblet decorated by the Beilby family of Newcastle, the white enamel Rococo scroll cartouche enclosing the dedication 'Success to the Town and Trade of LEITH' in white enamel, and with a later gilt line, the stem with two spiral opaque twists on a circular domed foot

Dimensions: 19cm high